We've said enough! Here's what others have said about their wedding day in The Royal George. Below are testimonials taken from weddings held in the hotel.

"We held our daughter's wedding reception at the Royal George on 05/10/2012, the venue was tastefully decorated, service and food was of a very high standard. The bride and groom had the Chinese Suite for 2 nights and were more than pleased with their accommodation which they described as lovely. Everyone enjoyed the "old worldly atmosphere" of the hotel itself which is in a convenient and picturesque location. Thank you Mr and Mrs Anderson for helping to make the day memorable, everyone agreed it had been just perfect."

"We booked our wedding here both day service and the evening reception and had a fantastic time, and could not have asked for a better venue the food was amazing and the staff were so friendly and Mr A is a god send and knows exactly how to keep everyone calm and guide you through your day. And as for the room (Tay Suite) it is a fantastic room lovely clean and fresh and very roomy with amazing views of the Tay and the Old Bridge and in the evening with the lighting from Tay Street is just picturesque. Would highly recommend."

"On 6th September my wife and I got married and had our meal and evening reception at The Royal George Hotel. What a fantastic day and night we had, Eddie and all his staff made us and our wedding party feel very welcome. The meal was fantastic and we were so looked after. From the time we first met Eddie and booked our venue to the very last detail of our wedding day, we knew that we were in good hands. The hotel catered for all our needs. We cannot praise the staff and Eddie highly enough for all they have done for us. Our wedding experience at the Royal George was such a relaxed affair. We were made to feel like everything was about us (which of course, it was). The rooms are fantastic. We had a suite for our wedding night and it was great. The room was big, comfortable, very clean and modern. The bed was lovely and the bathroom was brilliant. If you're thinking of staying in Perth then The Royal George Hotel is highly recommended. If you are thinking of having a wedding in Perth then we can't think of a better hotel than The Royal George. Fantastic value for money and such a welcoming atmosphere. Thank You Eddie and all the staff for everything."

"We were here yesterday for our small wedding reception and we're all really impressed. For us, it's in a great location in the city centre... just a minutes walk from the registry office! Had a couple of rounds of drinks and coffee in the lounge before having the High Tea which was an amazing amount of food. All of us were completely stuffed! Really tasty too and a good menu selection to suit varied tastes. The staff were very pleasant and helpful and we enjoyed their jocular manner. The view from the restaurant across to the River Tay and the bridge is lovely and looked good in our photos. Absolutely brilliant value for money too. All added a great aspect to our special day."

"I'm writing this having only had my wedding yesterday, so every detail is fresh in the memory. From start to finish the experience with the Royal George Hotel was nothing short of fabulous. I have never experienced a hotel that offers such helpful honest advice. The staff weren't there to make as much money as possible off you, they were there to make your day as enjoyable as possible. The organisation was fantastic from 7am to 1am, the service for the wedding breakfast was slick and well organised and the food was excellent. All four courses were fantastic and this was echoed by all the guests. The staff were always on hand to help with any setup of the venue, and were so accommodating with little intricate wedding bits (of which we had alot!!!.) The bridal suite (which was complimentary) was absolutely stunning, the bed felt like a giant cloud. Oh and the breakfast in the morning was excellent as well. The biggest compliment was when the best man came back in shock from the bar because this was the first time he'd received change from £20 for four drinks at a hotel, It only cost £12!!!!!! Needless to say the bar was packed most of the night. Finally, I feel we are the only couple in history that were shocked at how little the final bill was. In short the Royal George Hotel and all it's staff (especially Eddie the manager) were magnificent. They truly made it so we enjoyed the happiest day of our lives. BOOK THIS HOTEL FOR YOUR WEDDING!!!!!!" P.S. The hotel also is next to a beautiful backdrop for photo's."

"I had my wedding reception in this hotel at the start of November. From the cosy log fire to the delicious food and the friendly staff, it was a great experience. Several of my guests stayed for the whole weekend and all were impressed with it. I would recommend it. Ask for a room with a river view."
